COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only med dines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the maker of which print every ingredient entering has them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to every the print of the or. Pierce being desirous will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure giveerine being used inchemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit - forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal condiyet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery to time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its ase for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. THE HUNGARIAN HORROR. As was stated in the Gazatte, the vil lage of Oekoerito, Hungary, and the adjacent districts have been thrown into mourning by a terrible disaster which occurred at the former place Eunday night and which resulted in the death of between 300 and 400 persons and the serious injury of 100 others.

A public balt was announced to be held at the hotel of the village, where the coachhouse had been fi.ted up as a ballroom. It was a great barn-like structure, decorated with tinder-dry June brauches left from a previous entertainment, to which were added for the oc ession other decorations and Chinese lanterns. The festivity attracted pleasure-seekers from the whole surrounding country, and the building was so packed just before the ball commenced that the single door, which afforded entrance and ex t, was nailed up to prevert the admittance of scores who clamored outside.

While the dancing was in fu'l swing a oine branch caught fire and fell to the floor. It blezed furiously, and almost instantly the dresses of several of the women burst into flames, which spread with astonishing rapidity. A dreadful panic ensued, the revellers losing their heads completely. Many of them, with flames shooting out from their garments, rashed toward the barred exit, where turging mass was jamed together. Women and men fell and were trampled under foot. Those in front vainly endesvored to tear open the door, but were crushed helplessly by the pressure of the crowd behind. The roaring and crackling of the flames mingled with the despairing shricks of the doomed throng.

Soon the roof crashed in, the blazing wreckage falling upon the belpless victims so that many of those who hitherto had es caped the flames were struck down by beams or buried under the debris. The scene was horrifying.

When the door finally was broken open some few persons escaped, but most of these collapsed before they got far. Icside the building were hesps of charred corpses, and heart-rending screams and ans still were audible from the smoking piles. The official estimate, as given last night, states that 290 persons perished, but it is believed that the total death roll will prove much larger than this, as many persons have not been accounted for.

CHURCH HELD ON STAGE.

Because the manager of a troups playing at a leading vaudeville house in Ohicago said an 18-year old actress had refused to rehearse on Easter morning. and thereby miss attending church, Dean Walter T. Sumner, of the Cathedral of 88. Peter and Paul, officiated at a special Easter service on the stage of the theatre immediately after the matinee. Sixty men and women, many Deliveries in Rosemont, Braddock and Del of them in full makeup, and others with traces of rouge and greese paint on their faces, stood in a semicircle and sang hymns with as much fervor as was apparent in any church.

At the middle of the footlights, dressed in his pulpit robes, stood Dean Samper, leading the singing. In his sermon Dean Summer said: "You people are in a position to know how dramatic and operatic geous will be abused out of consideration for the box office. You know how bad plays are staged just because of the receipts they are sare to bring. The mish for money has made S:. Vitus the patron saint of American men and nervousness a characterism of women.

"You are not among relatives, where good family influence will be a restraining power for good. You are always with strangers, thrown on your own resources. Do your best, fight the good fight, lead clean lives, pure lives and keep a clear

GAMBLER KILLS SISTERS. Miss Ruby Richards, sged 40, of Lorsin, Ohio, and Miss Dorothy Richards, of Onicago, her sister and five years ber junior, were shot to death shortly before 7 o'clock yesterday evening by David Vesper, aged 35, a sporting man and gambler. Vesper then turned the gan upon himself, inflicting a wound in the head from which he died almost instantly. Neighbors who battered in the door after hearing the shots found the bodies of all three upon the floor of a room in the Richards home on Elyria averus. The body of Ruby Richards, fully dressd, was lying face downward, with the lifeless form of her sister recumbent scross her. Dorothy Richards was clad in her night dress. Vesper's body was in a far corder of the room, a revolver beside him and his face blackened by the powder marks from the weapon. No marks of a struggle were visible in the spartment.

Vesper had been known as the friend of Ruby Richards for some years. She Leaf Memorandum recently lost her chief scurce of income, and since that time his friends say that Vesper drank heavily. Miss Dorothy Richards came from Chicago about three months ago and has since been residing with her e der sister. The direct cause of the tragedy is unkrown.
